

Outline Job Description

POST TITLE:	HIGHER LEVEL TEACHING ASSISTANT
POST REF:
GRADE:	BAND 8 SCP 17-22

GENERIC INTRODUCTION:

The following information is designed to assist staff joining the School to understand and appreciate the work content of their post and the role they are to play in the organisation. The following points should be noted:

1. Whilst every endeavour has been made to outline the main duties and responsibilities of the post, a document such as this does not permit every item to be specified in detail. Broad headings, therefore, may have been used below, in which case all the usual associated routines are naturally included in the job profile.
2. Employees should not refuse to undertake work, which is not specified on this form, but they should record any additional duties they are required to perform and these will be taken into account when the post is reviewed.
3. Low Ash Primary School is an Equal Opportunities Employer and requires its employees to comply with all current equality policies in terms of equal opportunity for employment and access to the Council Services.
4. Low Ash Primary School is committed, where possible, to making any necessary reasonable adjustments to the job role and the working environment that would enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition.

PRIME OBJECTIVES OF THE POST:

To complement, appreciate and support the role of teachers and other professionals by undertaking work/care/support programmes which enables access to learning as part of a teacher planned approach.

To support the class teacher in the management of pupils in the classroom, and other senior staff on a range of teaching and learning experiences which deliver an appropriately differentiated and suitably challenging creative curriculum for all pupils whilst meeting statutory requirements.

Progressing pupil learning in a range of classroom settings; including working with individuals, groups of pupils or whole classes where the assigned teacher is not present (e.g. during PPA time or covering short term absence). This may involve planning, preparing and delivering learning activities as well as monitoring pupils, assessing, recording and reporting on pupil achievement, progress and development.

To take responsibility for the implementation of learning activities/work programmes under an agreed system of supervision with individuals/groups, in or out of the learning environment. This will include assisting the teacher in the whole planning cycle and the management/preparation of tasks/resources.

Work within school policies and procedures under the direction and guidance of senior staff and within an agreed system of supervision.

May from time to time be required to undertake other duties commensurate with the grade and level of responsibility defined in this job description.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist in the management of pupils in the learning environment.
- Assist the teacher in all aspects of lesson planning and planning of other learning activities, participating in all stages of the planning cycle and modify methods to meet individual/group needs; assessing, evaluating and adjusting lessons/work plans as appropriate and in accordance to pupil responses/needs whilst helping pupils to access learning activities through specialist support.
- Perform allocated tasks with limited supervision using professional discretion where required.
- Will transfer work and resources back to the teacher and feed back any issues.
- As agreed, and with limited supervision, deliver a range of teaching and learning experiences which should be appropriately differentiated and suitably challenging, ensuring all children are engaged in appropriate activities; giving support where necessary.
- Will undertake routine marking of pupils work and accurately record achievement/progress, administer and assess routine tests and invigilate exams/tests as well as working with the teachers to evaluate students' progress.
- Support the teacher in establishing, planning, adapting and undertaking structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes appropriate to the pupils' needs to ensure physical, social, emotional and intellectual development, taking into account diversity e.g. language, culture, ability, race and religion.
- Will recognise own strengths and areas of expertise and use these to advise and support colleagues in order to ensure the smooth running of the learning environment and contribute to relevant meetings.
- Will supervise and support pupils consistently at all times including those with special needs; recognising and responding to their individual needs whilst ensuring their safety and education in the learning environment.
- Assess the needs of pupils and use detailed specialist skills in the development and implementation of Individual Education Plans and Personal Care Programmes; attending to the pupils' personal needs and maintaining related personal programmes with the correct use of care materials including the safety and well-being of the pupils, therapy and medical intervention needs of the pupil and first aid, paying attention to social, health, physical and welfare matters as well as high standards of cleanliness and hygiene e.g. washing, dressing, toileting, and, if applicable, mobility.

- For posts working with pupils who are physically less able, it may be necessary to be able to physically assist the pupil in line with school policies and good practice.
- Will teach and supervise whole classes during the short term absence of the teacher and undertake the planning for this supervision within the pre-determined lesson framework; keeping all children engaged, maintain good order and to keep pupils on task.
- Promote and reinforce the inclusion, acceptance and integration of all pupils, including those with specific and special needs and those from different cultures and/or with a different first language as appropriate.
- Set challenging and demanding expectations, employ strategies to recognise and reward achievement of self-reliance whilst promoting self-esteem. Encourage pupils to act independently, working co-operatively and interacting with others.
- Will develop, organise, prepare, create, safely manage and maintain a purposeful, orderly and supportive learning environment to meet the lesson plans. Take responsibility for the care, preparation, maintenance and use of relevant equipment, assisting pupils in its use, clearing/storage afterwards and sourcing/suggesting new resources where needed.
- Will be aware of pupil progress, monitor/record pupil responses against pre-determined learning objectives as well as provide accurate, constructive and detailed feedback/reports to the teacher and pupils. Make suggestions on developing areas where required.
- In liaison with the class teacher, will establish constructive relationships and communicate with other agencies and professionals to support achievement and progress of pupils.
- Will contribute to the planning of opportunities for students to learn outside of school contexts in line with school policies and procedures.
- Promote positive values, attitudes and good pupil behaviour and encourage pupils to take responsibility for their own actions whilst supporting the teacher in managing this. Deal promptly with conflict and incidents (including those involving restraint) and reporting challenging behaviour where appropriate in line with established policy; developing new solutions where required and contribute to a purposeful learning environment.
- Will gather/report information from/to parents/carers as directed, taking into account parental/carer concerns, dealing with them sensitively, establishing constructive relationships and offering appropriate advice and guidance under the direction of the teacher.
- Will support the teaching staff by reporting pupil progress and achievements at parent consultation evenings which are usually held outside school hours.
- Will be responsible for developing and maintaining manual and computerised records and contributing to the reviews of systems/records as required.
